THE ALPHABET

COMPOSED, ARRANGED AND

DEDICATED TO ALL GOOD LITTLE GIRLS

BY

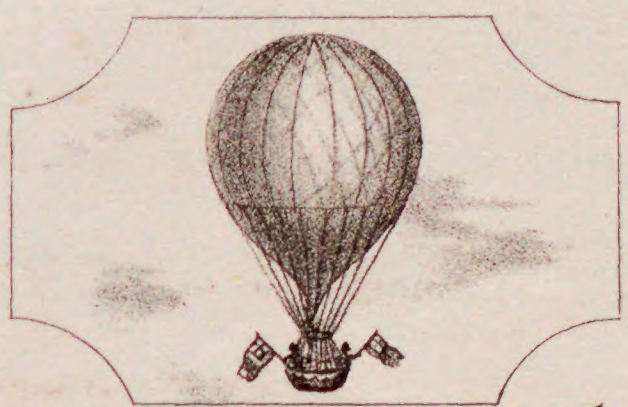
MISS CAROLINE LYON.

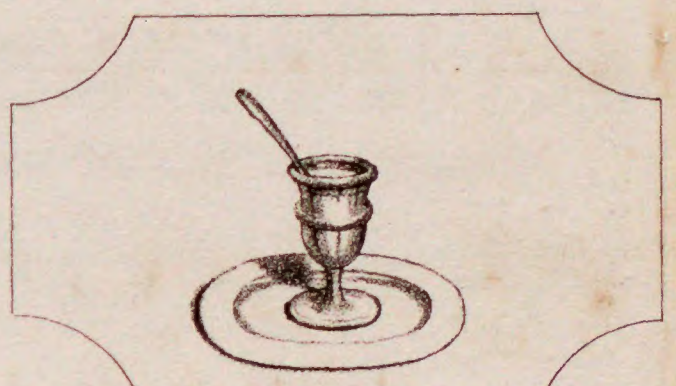
Ent. Sta. Hall

Price 2/-

Drawn and written on Stone by H. C. Maguire.

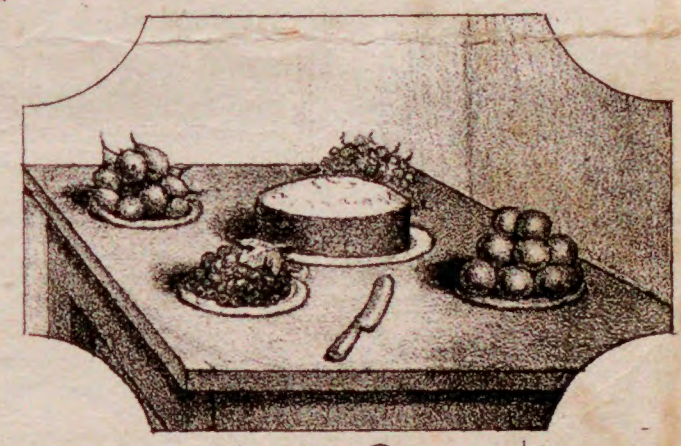
London: Published by Goulding & D'Almaine, 20, Soho Square.





Allegretto

A stands for Apple Tree, B a Bal-loon; C a nice Custard to eat with a spoon. D is my



Doll when from Lessons re-leas'd, E sis-ter El-len, and F is our Feast G is the Garden where often we play. H what we find in the Meadow, sweet Hay. I for the Inkstand thrown o-ver for fun, J cousin Joseph by whom it was done. K is our Kitten that plays with her tail.

Andante

L our maid Lucy with milk in her pail M my dear Mother, I love her so well; N Mister Nobody only can tell.

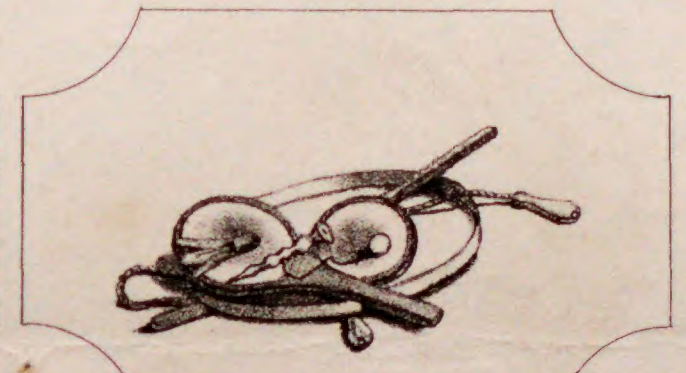
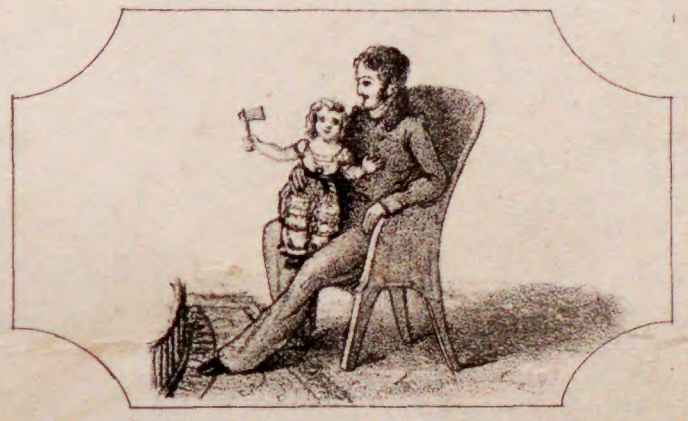
O is an Ostrich, strong, active, and tall P a fine Pea-cock that stands on the wall.

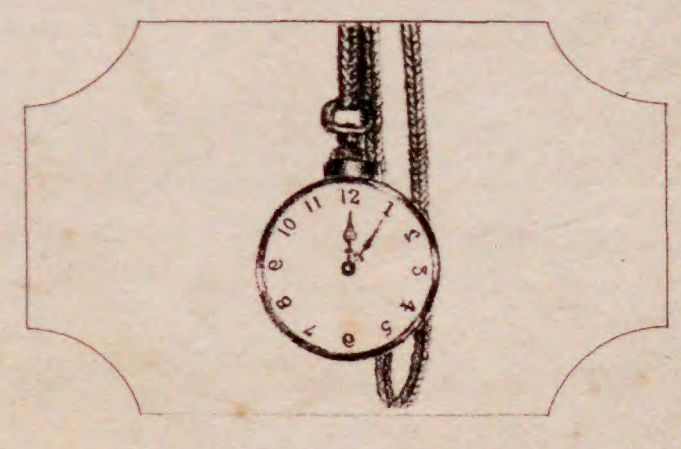
Tempo Primo

Q is the Quar-rel of Pom-pey with Pug; R is a Rose in a small chi-na Jug.

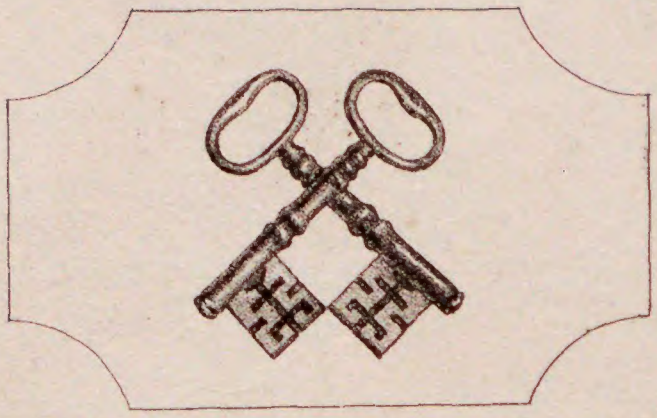




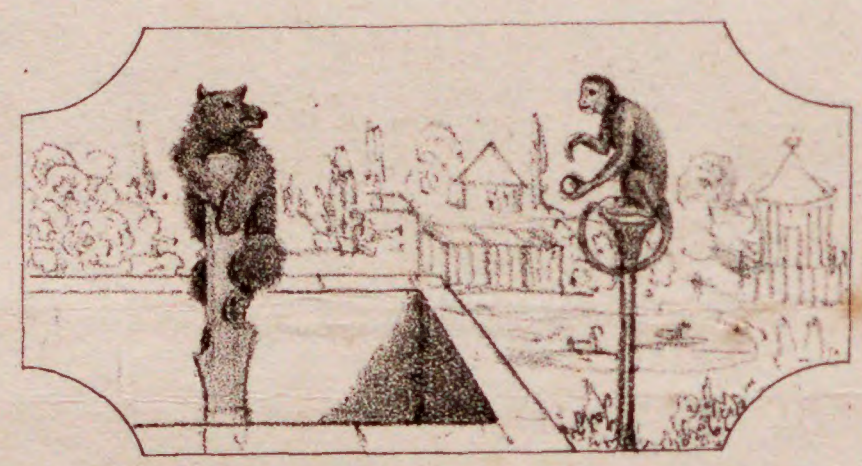
S stands for Syllabub, T for my Toys, U my kind Un-cle who loves Girls and Boys.



V stands for Vulture, the little Birds' dread W the Watch that hangs over the bed.



X may be made by two keys that are cross'd. Y is a Youth whose time must not be lost.



Piu presto

The Al-pha-bet now, which we nearly have said, Zoo-lo-gi-cal Gardens will finish with Z. The Al-pha-bet now which we nearly have said, Zoo-lo-gi-cal Gardens will finish with Z.

London: Published by Goulding & D'Almaine, 20, Soho Square.